Dear Senator Percy:

Thank you for your recent letter on behalf of

[REDACTED]

Our Director of Personnel advises me that [REDACTED] has been in touch with us intermittently since April of 1971 concerning his interest in employment. His file has been reviewed at various times by several Agency components; unfortunately, to date we have not been able to identify a vacancy which is suited to his background and experience.

Let me assure you that our inability to offer [REDACTED] employment is no reflection on him or his abilities. Our hiring has been extremely limited over the past several years, and we are unable to place many well-qualified individuals who apply with us.

I appreciate your interest in writing to me and regret that my response could not be favorable.

Yours sincerely,

STANSFIELD TURNER
